avenue, and putin a new store front, at a cost of $1,800.

William Heathcote proposes to put in a new store front at the southeast corner of South Second and Rodney streets, to cost $200.

F. P. Barnes proposes to add a two story mansard brick extension, 9x44, to dwelling on Hart street, near Lewis avenue, to cost $1,200.

Mr. Luther proposes to add a two story frame extension, 20x16, to dwelling at 236 Graham avenue and make other alterations, at a cost of $1,500.

Albert Weaver proposes to add one story of frame to each of the six stores at the northwest corner of Manjer street and Graham avenue, to cost $3,000.

F. J. Van Winkle proposes to add a two story frame extension, 20x16, to dwelling on Linwood street, near Fulton, in the Twenty-sixth Ward, to cost $800.

L. Praker & Brother propose to add a one story brick extension, 11x14, to factory at 124 to 130 Pearl street, to cost $1,000.

James Gauvern proposes to add a one story frame extension, 12x20, to dwelling at 120 India street, to cost $700.

John Burrell proposes to add a one story brick extension, 8.4x11, to dwelling at 193 Lee avenue, to cost $250.

Jacob Cohen proposes to revise dwelling damaged by fire at the southeast corner of Blake avenue and Sutman street, in the Twenty-sixth Ward, to cost $800.

The Brooklyn Library Association propose to add a two story brick extension, 19x42, to building at 183 Montague street. The front of old structure is to be taken down and rebuilt as original plans, at a total cost of $3,500.

The Long Island Brewing Company proposes to add a one story brick extension, 22x40, to uncoupied building at 314 Dean street, to cost $500.

Real Estate Transfers.

COMPARATIVE TABLES.

1890—From March 13 to 19, inclusive:

City deeds, consideration expressed	223
Number of lots, estimated	458
Total consideration	$1,414,475
Deeds covering more than one ward	24
Consideration county town property	$138,419
Deeds, nominal consideration	76
Deeds of release	24

1889—From March 13 to 19, inclusive:

Deeds, consideration expressed	267
Number of lots, estimated	407
Total consideration	$2,023,250
Deeds covering more than one ward	29
Miscellaneous deeds, county towns, releases, etc.	33
Consideration county town property	$86,350
Deeds, nominal consideration	22
Deeds of release	20
Number of mortgages	236
Total loan	$1,066,233
Number of mortgages covering more than one ward	18
Value of purchase money mortgages	$466,323

1889—From March 14 to 20, inclusive:

Total number of mortgages	223
Total value	$1,044,221
Number of purchase money mortgages	81
Value of purchase money mortgages	$379,000

Auctioneer Corbett's Sales.

Adelphi st, e s, 308.3 ft n Fulton st, 20x100, sal. Noah F Kenyon to Alice, wife John J Power, of Onder Peck.

Atlantic av, n s, 80 ft w Stone av, 20x100, Rob ert S Topping to Ann E Ely, wife of Jos Ely.

Bergen st, n s, 100 ft w Rogers av, 20x100, Thos George to E Riley to Robert N Young. Wakeman pl, lying between Bergen st and Atlantic av, 8.8x100, Same to same.

Bergen st, n s, 100 ft w Rogers av, 20x100, Same to same.

Bushwick av, e s, 125 ft n Fairfield st, 25x100, Edward H and Laura F Rose, Hartford, Conn, to Edward D and Jessie L Drake, of Brooklyn.

Clinton st, w s, 100 ft n Sackett st, 25x100, Jos Schroeder to Conrad Hecker, N Y.

Clinton st, w s, 100 ft n Sackett st, 25x100, Same to same.

Dean st, e s, 100 ft from Brooklyn av, 20x100, Barbara Spannenberg, wife of Jacob Baer, to John, Andrew and Joseph G Weckerle.

Division av, n s, 100 ft e Marcy av, 20x100, Same to same.

Division av, n s, 120 ft e Marcy av, 20x100, Same to same.

Division av, n s, 140 ft e Marcy av, 20x100, Same to same.

Division av, n s,