At a large, enthusiastic and determined Meeting of the MECHANICS and WORKINGMEN of the Fourth, Seventh, Eleventh and Thirteenth Wards, held in Pike-slip on Monday Evening, 29th inst., the Hon. HENRY DOUGHERTY presiding, and Messrs. JOHN BARRY and JOHN KIMMENS acting as Secretaries, the following preamble and resolutions were, after spirited addresses by a number of distinguished speakers, unanimously adopted:

Whereas, The business of repairing vessels and of taking them out of the water for the purpose of repairs has been carried on in the Seventh Ward and its vicinity for generations, and through all the various methods of repairing vessels, from the original beaching or careening down to these modern structures known as floating docks, without which the largest class of steamers could not be taken out of the water or repaired in this country, but would be compelled to go into some foreign port to be repaired, thus depriving the mechanics of this city of a large portion of their legitimate and most profitable business; and

Whereas, The mechanics engaged in the various trades and mechanical arts connected with the repairing, coppering and finishing of vessels, such as ship carpenters, joiners, carvers, ship smiths, spar-makers and other trades, have hired, and for years occupied their shops, stores and yards in the immediate vicinity of these docks, and those engaged in these occupations have congregated and settled in this vicinity and have, with thousands of laborers, also dependent upon these docks for their support, become with their families the long and settled residents of the neighborhood; and

Whereas, The removal of the floating docks would be the practical destruction of the business of the mechanics engaged in these crafts and trades, throwing upon many of them premises which they have hired for various periods of years, and which will be utterly valueless without the contiguity of these docks, and would necessitate the removal of thousands of laborers and their families, residents of the City and State of New-York; and

Whereas, It is of the utmost importance to the interests of the port of New-York that these immense structures should be conveniently and safely located; and

Whereas, Generations of practical experience in the raising and docking of vessels have approved the present location beyond dispute the best for this purpose within the limit of the port; and

Whereas, It has been avowed by those opposed to the docks that they and the mechanics dependent upon them should be moved to the State of New-Jersey, a location utterly unsafe and unfit for the conduct of their business, and repulsive to the pride of citizens of the port and State of New-York; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, the mechanics and others of the city of New-York engaged in the repair, coppering and finishing of vessels, regard those who are so busy in the malignant work of expelling the floating docks from their present location for the purpose of subserving their own petty interests, as utterly inimical to the rights and welfare of mechanics and laboring men, as well as reckless of the disaster which must follow if they succeed in their designs.

Resolved, That we, as mechanics deeply interested in the matter, urgently appeal to our Representatives in the Legislature to provide such legislation as shall either retain the docks where they now are, or shall leave it to the Common Council where they shall be located, and for that purpose to advocate and vote for the bill now before the Legislature to "legalize the business of repairing, coppering and finishing vessels."

Resolved, That the Chairman of this meeting be directed to forward copies of its proceedings to our several Representatives in the State Legislature, and publish the same in the various papers in this city and Albany. HENRY DOUGHERTY, Chairman.
JOHN BARRY, JOHN KIMMENS, } Secretaries.

BURTON'S NEW THEATER.—POSITIVELY LAST NIGHT BUT ONE OF THE MORMONS, which, notwithstanding its great success, must be withdrawn to make room for Mr. Booth, who appears on Monday next.
UNEQUALLED SUCCESS OF THE BROTHERS HUTCHINSON, whose truly elegant Drawing-room Performances elicited on Monday and Tuesday evenings the liveliest applause ever heard in a theater.
The London Times thus speaks of the Brothers' exhibition: "The dancing of the globes by this gentleman and his brother is a perfect puzzle. How four huge balls can be bandied about with such apparent ease, rapidity and precision—now tossed from the feet of one recumbent performer to the other, whirling and gyrating in a manner almost incredible, and anon resting in motionless equilibrium—is a matter which excites general astonishment. The aerial evolutions of the Brothers are highly attractive. They seem gifted with volitation, and were they winged beings they could not have performed their marvelous flight with more gracefulness or agility.
THIS (Wednesday) EVENING, the great play of THE MORMONS; Or, LIFE AT SALT LAKE CITY. Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Davenport, Mr. Burton, Mr. Fisher, &c., will appear. All the new and beautiful scenery and exciting and wonderful events, with the great facts in Mormon history.
The BROTHERS HUTCHINSON will go through their wondrous and elegant performances, entitled THE SPORTS OF ATLAS, as given before the Queen of England, the Monarchs of Russia, Austria, Prussia, Sweden and Norway, Saxony and Hanover.
To conclude with the farce of
SARAH'S YOUNG MAN.
On THURSDAY—THE SERIOUS FAMILY and THE TOODLES will be played, by particular desire.

IMPORTANT to COUNTRY READERS—A LEGITIMATE GIFT ENTERPRISE DEFENDED.
EVANS & Co.
In reply to a Libelous Weekly.
Messrs. Evans take their stand on Arbitrary Dividends.
At intervals of a fortnight during the past ten weeks a paper celebrated for the trashiness, nastiness and bad grammar of its widely puffed stories, has seen fit to libel, indiscriminately, all engaged in the Gift Enterprise business. It has sought to confound in public regard the Admittedly legitimate book business of this concern with the "policy, pencil and lottery swindles" against which we are glad to see Mayor Tiemann now taking such vigorous and effectual steps; and it has labored recklessly and persistently to create an impression throughout the country that all Gift Enterprises of whatever kind have been broken up by the action of our worthy Mayor. Now we wish our country friends to understand, as it is already understood by all in this city, that Mayor Tiemann has proved himself the best friend of the honest Gift Enterprise, by sweeping away those unprincipled and fraudulent concerns, through the agency of which a fair, respectable and widely-useful business was falling into distrustfulness and disrepute.
We are sincerely thankful for the late vigorous measures on this subject, and the result has been to place our business on a recognized legal footing, neither subject to any interference from the law, nor bound to submit in silence to such slanders as the editor of the libelous sheet in question has paid his damaged novelette-writers, both male and female, to pour out upon us.
We say on us, though the attack was general—the libeler knowing his weakness too well to provoke a direct personal issue; but, as the inventors and originators of a system by which we claim to have done great public good in the diffusion of intelligence, we reply individually to an attack which attempts to cover both the innocent and guilty with one common disgrace.
As stated very fairly in The New-York Herald of last week, the real motive of the attack made by the weakly and demoralizing journal in question, will be found in this; that certain "journals treading on the same ground, though not so stupid or besotted as the libeling sheet, have lately put in practice the idea first conceived by Messrs. Evans, of getting patronage by occasional dividends of profit with the subscribers, instead of paying agents an" enormous percentage for each subscription, or advertising through disfigured columns of the daily press an idiotical repetition of the request to "read Flam's New Story." "Hence, and from hence only," goes on The Herald, "and with this explanation, the public, even the 'country people,' we think, will be able to place a due estimate on the 'value, fairness, and disinterestedness of this paper's criticisms.'" Now, as between the sound standard literature which we aid in diffusing, being at present, beyond any doubt, the most extensive retail booksellers in the United States, and not having any but standard works in all departments of learning in our catalogue; compared with that morbid, sick, miserable, demoralizing and mawkish trash retailed in weekly driblets by the journal which has libeled us, we are not only willing but anxious that a just comparison should be made. By none but green, sick school-girls, decayed spinsters of limited education, or factory boys in the last stages of dyspepsia, can this patched, piebald and cobbled journal be preferred. To confess reading it, is a confession of so much imbecility; to confess liking it (if any one ever did that), would justify the most active interposition of solicitous friends! Our business stands on a broader and firmer basis to-day than ever heretofore. Amid all the prosecutions going on, the legitimacy of our system has never once been questioned. We stand as the recognized peers of the first book-publishing houses throughout the country, and all the first publishers in the States, have testified their confidence in us by allowing their names to be used in our catalogues as references for "the strict integrity, promptness and honor with which we have at all times managed our difficult and enormous business."
IN OUR GIFTS OR ARBITRARY DIVIDENDS
We share with customers the profits resulting from our sales of Books at the regular retail prices, often below the regular retail rices, by allowing ARBITRARY DIVIDENDS of different values to each, and as the average retail price of books is full fifty per cent more than their wholesale cost, where cash is paid, and the orders so large as ours, we are thus enabled on every thousand dollars worth of books sold by us, to divide JEWELRY, WATCHES, &c.,
WORTH AT RETAIL FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS, AMONG THE PURCHASERS.
And in proof of our good faith in this assertion we are willing to throw open our books to Mayor Tiemann or any other of the constituted authorities whenever legally or even politely so requested.

N. B.—By a careful examination of our new and revised catalogue all who are acquainted with books and their values will see that in the first place, our list embraces all the standard works of the day; and in the second, that all are sold at the regular retail prices of the trade, except where we have been enabled by special arrangements,
BOTH TO SELL THEM CHEAPER THAN THEY CAN BE HAD ANYWHERE ELSE, AND TO GIVE GIFTS WITH THEM AS WELL.
Our new and descriptive Catalogues of Books and Gifts, with full explanations to the public, mailed free to any address upon application to Double Acrostic.

SMITH'S GREAT ROMANCE OF EVERY-DAY LIFE, now publishing under the title of

MAGGIE, THE CHILD OF CHARITY; OR, WAIFS ON THE SEA OF HUMANITY,

IN THE NEW-YORK WEEKLY, has met with a success unparalleled in the history of story-writing. It

TOUCHINGLY PICTURES the sorrows of the oppressed, and wakes a chord in every HUMAN heart which is capable of responding to the calls of those destitute and SUFFERING unfortunates, who, while struggling nobly against the ills which beset them, are stranded on the great sea of life.

SIMPLE IN STYLE and without ostentation, the writer carries his readers along in a manner actually captivating.

TRUTHFUL IN DELINEATION, the most superficial observer cannot fail to recognize the correctness of his portraitures.

OPPOSED ONLY TO VICE, and inculcating only lessons of virtue and morality, its publication must benefit humanity.

REACHING EVERY ABUSE, it points out the pitfalls and quicksands which beset the paths of the innocent and guileless; and,

YIELDING TO NO PREJUDICE, it is written with a liberality of sentiment which must commend itself to the charitable and the candid.

ITS INTEREST increases with every chapter, and the reader is held as though spell-bound. He NEVER TIRES of the company of the various characters introduced, and there are few who, having once commenced, will not follow the fortunes of poor "Maggie" to the end.

TRUMPET-TONGUED are the praises of the public with regard to THE NEW-YORK WEEKLY. Everybody who has read it

HAS SPOKEN THE VOICE OF PRAISE in its behalf. Its circulation is already immense, and continually increasing EVERYWHERE. Its increase is counted daily by thousands, and there is no doubt but that it will soon reach the figure for which its publisher aimed at the outset.

NUMEROUS EDITORIALS, of the best quality, adorn its pages, and heighten the splendor of its principal attractions. To these are added, in

ENORMOUS VARIETY, a brilliant catalogue of Tales, Sketches, Poetry, Wit, Sentiment, Fact, &c.,

WITH SOLID ARTICLES upon all the current and important topics of the day.

YOU WHO REVEL IN EXCELLENCE should get THE WEEKLY, and peruse the effusions of MAYNE REID, Messrs. VAUGHN, HELEN FOREST GRAVES, MAITLAND, W. E. BINDER, and others. You

OUGHT TO PURCHASE this paper, for it is far ahead of all competition. Indeed, it is the only exponent we have of

ROMANCE UNTAINTED BY VICIOUSNESS. All the News Agents in the United States and Canada are delighted with it. They are already begging the publisher to KEEP A GOOD SUPPLY ON HAND, so that they may fulfill the numerous orders pouring in on them.

WEALTHY PEOPLE will find lessons of Truth in the pages of THE NEW-YORK WEEKLY, and indeed

EVERYBODY WITH A HEART and brain—whether poor or rich—and with an appreciation of the useful, the instructive, the entertaining—

EACH INDIVIDUAL FOND OF AMUSEMENT, will not fail of becoming a regular reader. If you approve of KEEPING PACE WITH THE TIMES, &c., you will take THE NEW-YORK WEEKLY, and recommend it to all your acquaintances.

LET ALL SUBSCRIBE. THE WEEKLY is destined to revolutionize the newspaper business. It is sure to distance all competition.

YOU MUST NOT BE SINGULAR! Go at once to some News Agent, and tell him to save it for you regularly.

To Whom it May Concern.

TO SHIP MASTERS.
OFFICE OF THE BOARD OF UNDERWRITERS, NEW-YORK, March 29, 1858.
There is reason to believe that disasters to vessels have recently occurred on the Southern coast of the United States in consequence of the use of OLD and INCORRECT CHARTS. This Board would earnestly impress upon Ship Masters the great importance of being provided with those that are of RECENT DATE and from a RELIABLE SOURCE. Blunt's Charts of the Coast of the United States are corrected in conformity with the Government Surveys, and have accurately laid down the position of all the Lights now in use or in process of construction on our coast, and these Charts should be familiar to every Ship Master in the trade.
Inspectors of vessels for the Underwriters would do well to ascertain that Masters are using proper Charts and Instruments, as a single error may lead to the most disastrous result.
The following changes in Lights on the Florida Reef, it is thought proper to notice:
CARYSFORT REEF LIGHT, which was a fixed Light, is now a REVOLVING LIGHT, showing a bright flash once in every 30 seconds.
DRY BANK LIGHT HOUSE on Sombrero Shoal near Sombrero Key, is a new Light House 154 feet high, painted RED.
The Light is a FIXED LIGHT; the focal plane 144 feet above the sea.
It is 65 miles from Carysfort, S. W. by W., variation 5° S. W. ½ W.; and 41 miles from Sand Key, E. N. E. ½ E., variation 5° E. N. E. ½ E.
LOGGERHEAD KEY is the Westernmost of the Florida Keys, Dry Tortugas Group.
A new Light House is building there, the focal plane of which light will be 152 feet above the sea. It will be lit on the first day of July next.
It bears from Sand Key W. ½ N., distant 60 miles.
All the above lights are on BLUNT'S CHARTS OF THE UNITED STATES.
ELLWOOD WALTER,
Secretary Board of Underwriters.

TWO LADIES, having met with a reverse of fortune, are desirous to open a select BOARDING HOUSE in the upper part of the city for Christian men. If four or five would unite to aid them, or two small families, it would be duly appreciated. They want something to start them. They are worthy, and abundant reference can be given as to ability and character. Address OLIVIA, Housekeeper, Tribune Office.

SOMETHING NEW
STRAW HAT TRADE.
The undersigned would respectfully represent, that for some years past they have appreciated the justice of the remarks made by the Trade while making their Spring purchases, viz: "That all new styles were introduced so late in the season, they were compelled to make their heaviest purchases without waiting, thus placing themselves under a disadvantage which the retailer and others who purchase later avoided, instead of giving them the opportunity of better selections from larger assortments, at prices to warrant their heavier purchases;" and while assenting to the force of such representations, the undersigned have also endeavored to remedy the difficulty, so far as lies in their power. In furtherance of this desirable change, they now invite special attention to the
combining in its manufacture
NOVELTY OF DESIGN,
ELEGANCE IN STYLE,
and DURABILITY OF FABRIC.
The supply of these Hats is necessarily limited, owing to the late commencement of their manufacture in Italy, and as a consequence, the undersigned will, in a great measure, be obliged to receive orders in advance of delivery.
SAMPLE CASES NOW READY.
