BASEBALL.

About the happiest individuals in the Borough of Queens during the past week are the amateur and semi-professional ball tossers, for the mild temperature and bright sunshine is the same to them as Hot Springs, Ark., is to the professional, for it means the trying out of “wings,” playing “fungos” and the ordinary “catch,” the preliminary training which is as necessary on the “lots” nine as the big league club.

No matter whether it is the kid school boy or his big brother, mother's heart beats with joy to see her “own” exercising in the open air. It would be very hard indeed to find even one public school in the whole Borough of Queens that is not represented with from one to a dozen ball clubs or class nines, as they are more familiarly known. Manhattan and in some sections of Brooklyn, the school boys are not so fortunate as their Queens brothers, for the ground necessary for a ball park is not available.

It is any wonder, therefore, that Queens Borough has such formidable baseball teams among the grown ups, in fact, better teams cannot be found in any part of Greater New York. It's a hard matter for an outside team to visit Queens and wallop a nine of grass eaters who have been brought up in the lots, one may say.

And just now is a busy time for the ball players and managers, for they are perfecting schedules and making improvements about the grounds, stands and the many little details which are necessary attributes of a successful ball club.

Flushing High School expects to have a fast team this season, as coach Dempsey has found plenty of good material. Practice games are being held every day.

Jimmy Olinot, the pride of Jamaica, who was the star hurler for the Jamaica Woodhills, has not signed up with any team as yet. But says that Jimmy will whirl Sunday ball this season.

There will be two games at the opening of the North Sides grounds on Jackson avenue, Corona, next Sunday. A preliminary game will be played between the North Side Juniors and the Reo A. C. nine from Astoria. The Brighton A. C. of Ridgewood will be the first team's opponents.

Stapleton's Field in Flushing will be the scene of exciting games this spring and summer, for the grounds will be the home field of the College Point A. A. on Sun days, St. James' Park on Tuesdays and the Queens Borough on Wednesdays. The opening game was played on Sunday with the Stapletons.

Another young man from Queens Borough who will play with the York Tri-Staters is Jack Farrell, who earned the laurels of being the heaviest batter on the North Sides of Queens last year. Farrell played the outfield most of the time. He originally was an infielder, playing at short. He is to try for the middle position with York.

It is a vast expanse of open lots, east of Steinway avenue and Jackson avenue, Long Island City. This has been a favorite spot for the ball players for many a year. Several diamonds are laid out here and there. It was one that could call an ideal place for baseball, for there are no houses or stores about where glass could be broken.

Even at this early date, the school boys play games every afternoon at the grounds on Vernon avenue, Long Island City, near the big gas tanks, which is plainly visible from the Queens Borough Bridge. It's not a rare sight to see a crowd of men and boys loitering on the bridge taking a bird's eye view of a game being played nearly a half mile distant.

The story is told that after the Glenwoods gave up old Recreation Park, at the junction of Steinway and Jackson avenues, Long Island City, “Billy” Michaels, a former Glenwood player, secured a three year lease from the owner, Dr. Wood, with a hundred dollars thrown in for the good of the sport. The old battle ground will continue as a ball park, with Michaels at the head of the Recreation.

The Vigilants of College Point will have one of the top-notch teams of the borough this season. The grounds on Stratton hill have been placed in good condition, with the acquisition of a new stand. Here is the Vigilants' lineup: J. Brill, catcher; Dick Matthe, pitcher; Al. Watt, 1 base; L. R. Matthe, 2 base; J. Matthe, 3 base; M. Sussile, short stop; Jesse Messer, Robert Bagley and William Rogers, fielders.

Residents of College Point have received the glad news from Providence that their townsman, Charlie Martini, is looked upon by the baseball critics as a star. Martini was considered the speediest thrower in the world. He is not yet of age. Being a big fellow he can “wing” the horseshoe across the pan at a mile a minute. His baseball career commenced with the Flushing High School, and later he branched out with the Vigilants of College Point.

Johnny Young of Elmhurst, a graduate civil engineer of Columbia College, where he was captain of the baseball nine, has again listened to the lure of the ball and bat, for he has signed up with Seranton to don the mask and wind-pad. Young is the Seranton Club's first catcher, and a good one he is, too. He takes a healthy swing at the ball and is considered a fair batter. During the winter Young played several games of indoor baseball with Queens City's Legions.

Benny Lenihan, who played with the Flushing, Manhattan and Port Washington nines last summer at various times, is to hold down a position with the York, Pa., club of the Tri-State League. He is a good third sacker and can pole the muggle a mile. Lenihan played with the Flushing during the short life of the Queens County League, early last summer, and on Sundays was in the lineup of the Mohawks. When the club disbanded Benny hooked up with the Ports, where he made a record with the stick.

Fans in Cincinatti predict a great season for Catcher Tom Clarke, a Queens Borough youngster who jumped to the big League from the Montreal last fall. In a letter from Hot Springs to friends in Queens Clarke states that he is ready to fill the big gap left open by the fall of Larry McLean. When the big catcher injured his knee-cap last summer Clarke became the Redlegs' mainstay behind the bat, and he made an excellent impression with fandom and the experts. In the eighteen games that he played he hit for 250. Clarke also states in his letter that his arm is a trifle sore, but that a few days' rest will bring it around. The baths at the springs has reduced his weight eleven pounds.

Morton was to have had a team at Trident Park in Long Island City this season, where he successfully held forth with the Laurel Hills during September and October of '09, but through some business deal for the grounds he was outgeneraled for this year's lease by the Glenwoods.

One of the fastest runners around the bags is Sal Lahey, who will be the captain of the Glenwoods of Long Island City this season. The former Flushing and Laurel Hill player is also a slugger with the willow, his specialty being home runs. Sal will play in the outer garden, as usual. The Bryant High School baseball squad is being coached this spring by the Glenwoods' captain.

Whitstone will have a slick nine in the field in the Kenmore. Manager L. A. Smith announces the lineup as follows: Baldwin, Denely, Brick, Doyle, Unverzagt, Lee, Unverzagt and Dyer. The boxmen will include Lee, Unverzagt and Dyer. It is the intention of the Kenmore's to play Saturday games abroad, and Sunday games in Whitstone. Managers are invited to correspond.

The members of Court Woodside, No. 425, Foresters of America, are enthusiastic baseballists, and for that purpose they are to place a team in the field this summer, for the purpose of playing games with nines of any fraternal organization whatever. Games will be played on grounds in Woodside, where the court team has a fine diamond. The season in Woodside will be opened with the Dauntless nine of Brooklyn. For games address J. L. Spiels, 32 Third street, Woodside.

There will be a number of ball players from Queens Borough who will wear uniforms of teams in the Connecticut State League and who will report for duty this month. Two former Glenwood players—first baseman Harry Desmond and second baseman Jimmy Wolf—will report to the New Britain Club, as will Jack Watt of College Point, last season with the Laurel Hills and twirler Matty Sheridan's pal, Frank R. Brown of Richmond Hill. Boxman Billy Froboes of Corona journeys to New Haven.

There are Saturday and Sunday teams throughout the borough, and one of these who will play only Saturday games is the Elmhursts, a nine that made a grand record in '09, when they defeated many of the fastest clubs in and around the city. Manager Schill knows baseball from A to Z, and players as well, and the coming season's outlook is very encouraging from every standpoint. All of last year's players but two have reported. There will be a new battery in the lineup. When the opening game is played on April 30th, Manager Schill has booked several of the best nines in Brooklyn to play on the old Commons.

When the Boston “Speed Boy” of the American League visit the Yankees ball lot this spring a big delegation of Long Island City fans will journey there in a body to pay their respects to Frank Barberick, one of the twirlers, who was considered one of the best flingers in the Eastern League last year. Barberick's was a rapid, for only a few years ago he was pitching ball in the lot of Queens. The Boston paid over five thousand dollars to Providence for the red haired phenom. Frank has great speed and also gets ‘em right over the pan. In eight games last season he did not issue a free pass.

On Sunday, April 10th, the North Side Junior Baseball Club will open the season of 1910 and expect to excel their record of last season. The Juniors will play the Reo Field Club of Astoria at 1:30 p. m. Their line-up will be as follows: Young, 1 base; Heath, 2nd; Harmer, 3rd; Ross, r. f.; Wenzel, c. f. and pitcher; Konrath, pitcher; Cook, pitcher; and Oppenheimer, catcher. They would like to hear from Cherry Lanes, Winfield Athletic Club, College Point A. A., Princeton, Springfield and Woodside. For games, address W. Konrath, No. 37 Tulip street, Corona, L. I.

The only incorporated baseball club among the semi-professional teams in the borough, is the North Sides of Corona, which was organized three years ago, and which developed many good players. The team will play at the Jackson avenue grounds again this season, where a small grand stand has been built. Several new players will be in the nine's lineup, including pitcher Fredericks, a former Woodside star, and two infielders, to take the places of Martin and Oppenheimer. The team will play at the Corona grounds. For games, address W. Konrath, No. 37 Tulip street, Corona, L. I.

It will be a long time, however, before fandom will forget the rivalry and warm battles put up on the diamond by the Laurel Hills with such formidable nines as the Woodhills of Jamaica and the Glenwoods of Long Island City. There was no question but that the Laurel Hills had the classiest bunch of ball tossers in the borough in '09. The field at Laurel Hill was within a stone's throw of Celtic Park and there wasn't a man, woman or child in that burg who wouldn't wager anything from five “cases” to a pound of sugar that their favorites wouldn't trim any nine that came down the pike. The New York Americans, with “Opie” Lake on the mound, had all they could do to earn a victory by the score of 1 to 0, and recently Hal Chase remarked that they could “go some.”

A little food for the hungry baseball fans may be found in the following paragraphs:

Old Recreation Park, as far as the Glenwoods are concerned, is a thing of the past, now that the representative Long Island City ball club has engaged Trident Park for the season of '10. During the past two weeks the grounds on lower Jackson avenue have undergone a big change, for Trident Park will be opened by the Glenwoods on Sunday, April 10th. The old stamping grounds of the Glenwoods, where thousands of fans spent many a pleasant afternoon watching their favorites slug the horse hide over the car tracks, will probably be continued as a ball lot for a little while, but it is rumored that blocks of flats will soon cover the old ground where for years the most exciting games were decided.

Here are a number of Queens Borough nines who desire to book games for the coming season. Managers are invited to correspond: Lenox Field Club of Astoria, averaging 12 to 14 years, games on home grounds, Edward Weeks, 229 Newtown avenue, Astoria; Reo Club of Astoria, averaging 11 to 13 years, G. Houghton, 166 Amity street, Flushing; Recreation team are booking dates for games at their grounds in Long Island City, formerly the Glenwoods Field. Best teams of Brooklyn and Long Island invited to correspond: Jackson and Steinway avenues, Long Island City; Cedar Field Club, P. Ootter, 203 Flushing avenue, Long Island City; Monitor B. B. C., 64 Hallett street, Astoria; Willow A. C. of Maspeth, A. Brochard, 130 Elk avenue, Maspeth.

“Is it possible that the best known team in Queens of years gone by will not be together this season?” ask the fans. The Laurel Hills are the boys referred to. The famed Laurel Hills of Newtown, captained and managed for a number of years by George Morton, a graduate of Pratt Institute, Morton has given the information to friends that he will be unable to direct the affairs of a team this season, and that he will probably play with the Hoboken. Two of Morton's stars will play with professional clubs. Matty Sheridan is training with the St. Louis Nationals. He was the mainstay in the box for the Laurel Hills for years. Third baseman George McGreevey will play with Binghamton, of the New York State League.

After playing two exciting tie games, the Hanovers of Glendale succeeded in defeating the Brightons last Sunday, at Meyerrose Park.

Wutcher made his debut in the box for the Glendale and gave a decidedly classy exhibition. Tom Giggley was also in the line light. His capture of a grass cutter back of first base was roundly applauded, and he also lined out a timely two bagger. Score: Brightons.....1000000000-1 Hanovers.....20000200x-4

Next Sunday, the Hanovers open their season at Glendale and great doling are promised. The Fleetwood Athletic Club of the Bronx have been booked as the initial attraction, and the Hanovers will bring in brand new uniforms. Larry Schultz, the Glendale's popular catcher, will make his last appearance, as he leaves for Northampton of the Connecticut League on April 15.

The Maspeth A. C. made a successful debut into the season of 1910, last Sunday by defeating Kane's professionals in a hard fought game. The features of the game were a hair-raising catch by Quis of Maspeth of a hot liner, and a remarkable one-hand catch of a high foul by J. Stork of the Professionals.

Next Sunday, April 16, the Maspeths will have for their opponents the Martin A. C. of East New York, and in the preliminary the Willows meet the Thompson A. C. of Elmhurst. Games called at 2 and 4 o'clock. The score: Kane's Prof's 010100010-3 83 Maspeth A. C. 01032001x-7 102

Batteries—Stork and Stork; West and Werner.

The Columbia A. A., who claims the championship of Newtown, having won 25 out of 29 games, will open their season on the 30th inst. They have secured the grounds on Junction and Prospect streets and with the aid of the Boulevards, who will play there on Sunday, will have it fixed up into a first class diamond. W. Askey was elected captain and J. Fritz re-elected manager.

There are fourteen trying out for the team as follows: Lual, Hargrove, Payne, Askey, J. Fritz, L. Brown, R. Gray, V. Gray, P. Johnston, F. Kelly, Batterson, Keating, Richards, Farrell. All uniformed traveling teams who play Saturday afternoons can book games with the Columbia by writing J. Fritz, manager, Columbia A. A., 227 Eighth street, Elmhurst.

The Montgomery Athletic Club are anxious to book games with any baseball team averaging from 8 to 10 years of age. Teams that would like to book with juniors cannot be over 14 years of age. They do not leave their grounds, which are on Montgomery ave., Corona. Address Manager John Flood, 49 Montgomery avenue, Corona.

Next Saturday afternoon, the Montgomery A. C. will cross bats with a baseball team from New York City. The game will be called at 4 o'clock sharp.

The whirlwind playing of Morton, the big second baseman from Queens Borough, is making some of the leaguers sit up and take notice at Saratoga Park, Brooklyn. In Saturday's game he crushed the rubber, threw three line drives, which drive that drew a mid-season burst of applause from the seven hundred people present.

Commissioner of Public Works Joseph Sullivan, Borough of Queens, will toss out a brand new Spalding at the opening game at the Coronas' field Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, when the opponents of the home team will be the Iner-Seals, who trounced Billy Poole's professionals at Loughlin Oval last Sunday, by the score of 8 to 7. “New York” Realeige of the New Haven Club will twirl for the Iner-Seals, while Manager Richter of the Coronas will trot out the renowned Andy Norwig, who pitched against the Glenwoods last Sunday, and incidentally put it all over ‘em. Charlie Duff will twirl for the Coronas. Their lineup will be as follows: Young, c.; Norwig, p.; Dedon, 1b.; Oppenheimer, 2b.; Patterson, 3b.; Martin, s. r.; Richter, Lund and Chamberlain, outfielders.

Another big opening on Sunday afternoon will be at Trident Park, on Jackson avenue, Long Island City, when the Glenwoods will try conclusions with the Brooklyn Majors, who are to have a bunch of minor leaguers in their lineup. Finzer and Hagen will be in the points for the Glenwoods, with boxman Zinner in reserve; while either Andy Herbst, the Montreal phenom, or Girard, will toss ‘em over for the Majors. Here is the Glenwoods' batting order: Farrington, s. r.; Miller, 3b.; Est Korwin, c. f.; Schaub, 1b.; Hagen, c.; Lahey, l. f.; Ellisman, 2b.; Schmidt, r. f.; Finzer, p.

ST. MARGARET'S FAIR.

At the School Hall, Middle Village, for the Benefit of the Church.

The grand fair, which is now being held in the school hall of St. Margaret's Church of Middle Village, was opened last Sunday evening by County Clerk Martin Mager and it will be opened every evening until Sunday, April 17th, inclusive.

The attendance so far has been very large each night and every thing bespeaks a great success.

Quite a novelty last Tuesday night was the giving away of a free supper ticket to every one present by the members of St. Barbara's Council, who came to the fair in a body after they had conducted an installation meeting at the residence of Andrew Seitz.

On the same evening, a solo, entitled “In the Garden of Dreams,” was sung by Miss Annie Eohart. The Misses Annie Dittus and Eva Kneetoben and Valentine Bauer gave their specialty sketch, “Juma the Jeff.” A violin duet was given by Charles Goerber and John Dettling.

The following ladies have charge of the different booths:

St. Barbara's Booth—Mrs. Andrew Seitz, Mrs. Valentine Bauer, Mrs. Charles Dettling and Mrs. Adam Himmel.

St. Anna's Booth—Mrs. Frances Bauer, Mrs. J. Dittus, Mrs. Charles Dittus, Mrs. J. Roehrig and Mrs. J. Weber.

Holy Name Table—The Misses Margaret and Elizabeth Kehl, Lydia Hirsch and Mrs. Schmidt.

Young Ladies' Sodality Booth—The Misses Anna Franz, Amelia Hirsch, Margaret Fuchs, Eleanor Godfrey and Maria Closius.

Candy Booth—The Misses Marie Bernell and Kate Wandland.

The officers of the fair are: Joseph Bernell, President; Andrew Seitz, Vice-President; Joseph Bauer, Secretary; Ph. Rudmann, Treasurer; Joseph Kehl, Financial Secretary; Rev. John P. Gopp, Rector.

The committee of arrangements consist of the following gentlemen: Val. Bauer, Aloysius Kammerer, John Berner, Frank Kammerer, Michael Brand, Jr., John Kollmer, John Closius, Peter Knocgen, Oba. Dettling, Oba. Kehl, Jr., Val. Dietz, Joseph Mass, Michael Dittus, John Riede, John Foeth, Jr., Jacob Rehrig, Frank Hahn, Albert Rehrig, Peter Hirsch, Jr., Sebastian Spohrer, Jacob Hirsch, Anthony Weber, Andrew Hendel.

The entire proceeds of the affair will be devoted to the church.

A Tearful Eye to Business.

Advertising is nowadays almost a fine art. Clever advertisements attract customers in two ways—first, because they effectively call attention to the goods, and, second, because of their cleverness, pure and simple. Such a one is the following quoted from London M. A. P., which adorned a book shop in the Rue d'Amsterdam, in Paris:

LIQUIDATION.

With tears in my eyes, I am obliged to clear the whole of my stock of books. To get rid of it all in a week I offer it to you at a loss of 50 per cent.

My husband seeing fit to abandon me with five children.

Can't I go on without my husband? Because my husband alone was able to obtain job lines from the big provincial and foreign bootmakers.

Prudent ladies will profit by these extraordinarily low prices, which will enable me to clear out my stock and search for my husband throughout Europe.

MME. MARIE-LOUISE X.

Nothing to Say.

According to a delightful story of Shelley, recounted in the International Journal of Ethics by the Rev. Bradley Gilman, the splendid mental equipment of the poet did not include humor. In his characteristically impassioned way, Shelley was deeply interested in the problem of immortality. One day he met a nursemaid wheeling a very young child in a perambulator. “Here is a little soul,” he reflected, “recently come to earth out of the great unknown preceding human life. Perhaps he can tell me something about the great unknown after human life. The two realms may be one and the same.”

He accosted the infant twice, but of course gained no response, only a blank infantile stare.

“Alas, alas!” sighed Shelley. “How very reticent these little creatures are!”

Rubber and Gutta Percha.

There are important distinctions between India rubber and gutta percha, and in the majority of purposes for which they are employed one cannot replace the other. While the trees yielding India rubber are well distributed over the tropical parts of the world and may be cultivated with more or less facility, the tree which furnishes gutta percha is to be found only in Borneo, Sumatra and the Malay archipelago generally.

The Boy's Bit.

“You seem to have got your boys interested in mythology very nicely.”

“Yes; I explained to them that Hercules held a championship.”—Washington Herald.

Sure Test.

She—They held a mirror over her face to see if she was alive. I don't understand that. He—Why, you see, if she was alive she'd open her eyes and look in it.

The Wise Woodpecker.

In California the woodpecker stores acorns away, although he never eats them. He bores several holes, differing slightly in size, at the fall of the year invariably in a pine tree. Then he finds an acorn, which he adjusts to one of the holes prepared for its reception. But he does not eat the acorn, for, as a rule, he is not a vegetarian. His object in storing away the acorns exhibits foresight and a knowledge of results more akin to reason than to instinct. The succeeding winter the acorns remain intact, but, becoming saturated, are predisposed to decay, when they are attacked by maggots, which seem to delight in this special food. It is then that the woodpecker reaps the harvest his wisdom has provided at a time when the ground being covered with snow, he would experience difficulty otherwise in obtaining suitable or palatable food.—Cleveland Leader.
