

JAMAICA, N. Y., SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1935.

ACTION! Camera! Emil "Sunny" Guterman of Laurelton "shoots" a few winners in his Sound Beach beauty contest. Left to right Ethel Lindner of Bayside, fourth; Helen Giebler of Hollis, winner; Edith Cooper of Jamaica, second, and May Spool of Richmond Hill, third.

BLUSHING BRIDE and attendants at wedding of Florence Hanrahan to James Cullen, son of Michael Cullen, owner of the King Kullen chain, shown at reception at the Homestead, Kew Gardens. Left to right, Rose Mary Cullen, Mrs. Walter Casper, the bride, Cecile Nebgen, and Helen Nebgen.

A BEAUTY queen relaxes. Helen Giebler of 110-07 202nd street, Hollis, who won the title at Guterman's Pavillion. Sound Beach, relaxes on the sandy Long Island shore.

PULCHRITUDE on parade—Entrants in the annual Sound Beach beauty contest pass the judge's stand. Left to right, Betty Hendry, The Bronx; Anna Vetter, South Ozone Park; Helen Meehan, Brooklyn; Helen Giebler, Hollis; Ruth Shapiro, Brooklyn; Mabel Plant, Flushing; Anna Hamacker, The Bronx; Ethel Lindner, Bayside; Josephine Vornlocker, Glendale; Vera Muhleisen, Bellare; Anne Schmidt, Sound Beach; Patricia de Jong, Richmond Hill; May Spool, Richmond Hill; Edith Cooper, Jamaica; and Eileen Hunter, Long Island City.

PUSHING her craft out in to the water, Madeline Foley of 194-27 115th drive, St. Albans, prepares to "paddle her own canoe," on Long Island.

DO YOU TAKE THIS MAN? . . . well, maybe . . . Pete Geyer, center, "marries" Doris Fairweather in a mock ceremony to John Larveter at a barn dance and Madri Gras held at Springfield Dock.